

2004 AUDREY NELSON COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

APPLICATION

Presented by the

National Community Development Association

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

In 1987, the National Community Development Association (NCDA) established the Audrey Nelson Community Development Achievement Awards to recognize exemplary uses of CDBG funds which address the needs of families, homes and neighborhoods.

Audrey Nelson was the first Deputy Executive Secretary of NCDA. She grew up in an inner city Chicago neighborhood which was a target area for the local Model Cities Program. Her intense commitment to her neighborhood, her local program efforts, and her drive to serve low income people was cut short by death from cancer at the age of 29.

We are proud to continue these awards to honor others, like Audrey, who exemplify outstanding achievement in service to neighborhoods and their lower income residents. 2004 marks the 18th Anniversary of the Audrey Nelson Community Development

Achievement Awards and the 30th Year Anniversary of the Community Development Block Grant Program.

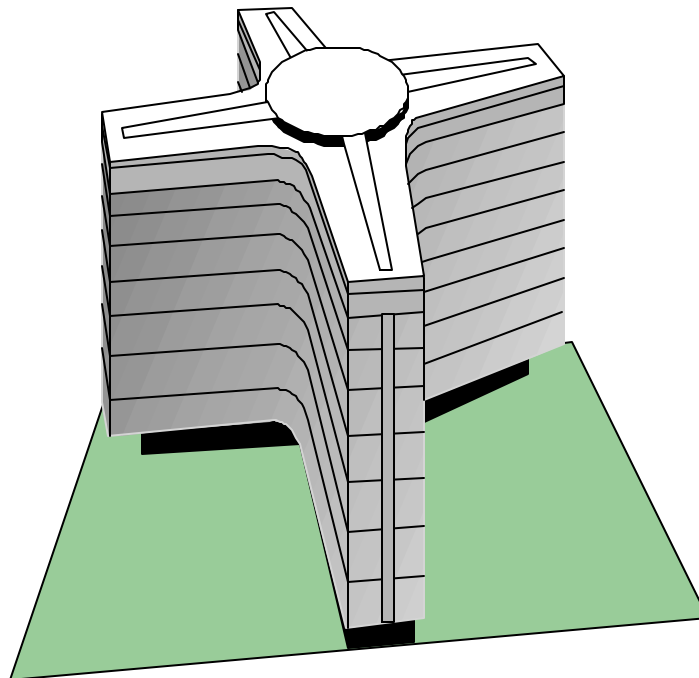

As the second session of the 108th Congress convenes, let's continue to educate the electorate on the importance of the Community Development Block Grant program. A list of the Awardees will be included in our annual testimony to Congress as NCDA continues to advocate on behalf of the CDBG program.

Any NCDA member may nominate a qualified program by completing the enclosed application form.

Award recipients, along with their nominating communities, will be notified by December 29, 2003. Awards will be presented during the NCDA Winter Meeting, January 21-24, 2004 at the Hyatt Regency on Capitol Hill Hotel in Washington, D.C.

ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS
FACT SHEETS

PURPOSE:

To recognize exemplary uses of CDBG, HOME and other community development funds, and particularly those programs that address the needs of neighborhoods and families. The judging panel will look more favorably on those projects or programs that use multiple funding sources and view the development or redevelopment neighborhoods from a comprehensive, sustainable approach. An example would be the development of multi-family housing to complement the construction of a business incubator facility, or light industrial complex.

NOMINATION PERIOD:

October 17 through December 12, 2003

ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS:

Community Development projects or programs funded between FY98 through FY03 with CDBG, HOME, and other community development funds. Sponsors are encouraged to nominate non-profit subrecipients or projects that operate in low-income neighborhoods or serve lower income populations.

NOMINATION PROCESS:

NCDA sponsor (the member community) completes application and mails to:

National Community Development Association
522 21st Street, N.W., Suite 120
Washington, D.C. 20006

Limited to one nominee per member community.
